

South Australia's public hospitals are at breaking point.

Doctors are grappling with excessive workloads and high levels of fatigue in an under resourced system that's struggling to meet patient demand.

And that's before any Covid impact after the borders open.

Our doctors need a safe workplace with the time and resources to safely care for you and your loved ones.

Tell Premier Marshall it's Time to Care.... for our doctors and for the health of all South Australians.

Sign the petition at: sasmoa4doctors.com.au/time-to-care

South Australian
Salaried Medical Officers Association

 facebook.com/sasmoa4doctors

Authorised by Dr Laura Willington, South Australian Salaried Medical Officers, Adelaide.